Problem Statement

      While Mahindra University students and alumni currently stay connected through general social media and informal channels, there is no dedicated platform designed specifically for their academic, professional, and social networking needs. This limits the potential for structured mentorship, event sharing, and career-related interactions. A mobile application tailored for MU's community can help simplify and enhance these connections by offering features like messaging, forums, and job postings in one convenient platform.